

Renewable Energy Consultant

Project: Meeting the Challenge of 2020 in The Bahamas
Post title: Renewable Energy Consultant
Duration: 24 – 32 months
Duty station: New Providence

The Renewable Energy Consultant's main duties and responsibilities are to:

- Direct RE/EE Component activities in accordance with project plans
- Ensure key deliverables of the project are met on a timely basis
- Ensure project risks and potential delays are identified and mitigated
- Regularly reports on project activities, so that the extent to which the project is achieving its objectives are known
- Ensure relevant key stakeholders are informed of project activities
- Ensure project resources are used effectively and efficiently
- Responsible for managing the activities of all sub-contracted works under the RE/EE component of the project
- Responsible for coordinating the activities of all RE/EE consultants assigned to the project

Reporting structure

The Renewable Energy Consultant will report to the National Project Coordinator

Qualifications

Education

- Minimum of Undergraduate degree in energy or energy management related discipline
- Advanced Degree in Energy or Energy Management Discipline preferable
- Project Management Professional Certification would be an asset

Required Skills

- Excellent project management skills
- Very good report writing
- Very good cost control and budgeting skills
- Very good communication and report writing skills
- Ability to resolve team conflicts and possess good problem-solving skills

Experience

- Experience in managing/executing projects for international donor agencies
- Experience with working with government and non-government agencies
- Experience with managing or executing Renewable Energy and Energy Efficiency Projects
- Experience in preparing Greenhouse Gas Inventories would be an asset

Languages

Fluency in English is required.